

Chelsea 2016 preview and an exclusive look behind the scenes

31/40 The Chelsea Barracks Garden

...That's better! Just a few days on, and the planting for The Chelsea Barracks Garden, designed by show regular Jo Thompson, is well under way. Given the choice of predominating flowers - sumptuous roses and peonies in deliciously deep shades, pink foxgloves and pale green angelica - this garden is going to be very popular with the crowds. No wonder Jo is smiling.
